SHOW INFO
Created and executive produced by writer Terri Minsky ("Lizzie McGuire"), the series' third season continues the contemporary coming-of-age story of a 13-year-old girl named Andi Mack who is trying to determine where she fits in and the many amazing ways she can live her life.

The series revolves around Andi Mack who, on the eve of her 13 birthday, learns that her older sister, Bex, is actually her mother. The shocking revelation sends Andi on an uncharted course of self-discovery. At least she’s in good company; her best friends, Cyrus and Buffy, are also figuring out their places in the world.

In season three, Andi is increasingly confident about expressing herself as she navigates her relationship with Jonah Beck and new territory in her long-standing friendships with Buffy and Cyrus. She continues to work on building a family unit with her parents, Bex and Bowie, who are new to parenting but are doing their best through humor, love and open communication. Andi’s grandparents, Celia and Ham, are still very much in the picture to provide her with additional support.
